

What the MVTR does

The Motor Vehicle Traders Register (MVTR) holds essential information about registered traders and their business. You can register and maintain your registration online. You can also search the register for registered traders along with banned traders.

Search the register

The MVTR can be used to find out if a motor vehicle trader is registered and therefore legally able to trade.

- Learn more about searching the register

Search the online register for:

- Current and historical motor vehicle trader registrations
- Banned motor vehicle traders

Register as a motor vehicle trader

The Motor Vehicle Sales Act 2003 (MVSA) sets out the criteria for who must register as a motor vehicle trader. Basically, all persons carrying on the business of motor vehicle trading are required to register under the MVSA.

- Learn about registering as a trader

Apply online now to:

- Register as an individual
- Register as a company
- Renew your motor vehicle trader registration

Maintain motor vehicle trader registration details

Once you have registered as a motor vehicle trader you need to keep your registration information up to date.

- Learn about maintaining your registration

Use our online service to:

- Maintain your registration details now.