

Enforcement and complaints

There are a number of offences under the MVSA.

These include:

- Carrying on the business of motor trading without being registered
- Tampering with odometers
- Failure to display a Consumer Information Notice
- Providing false or misleading information on a statutory declaration.

More information

See our sections on:

- Traders responsibilities to buyers and
- Complaints.